PRESENTATION CEREMONY

During the evening Mrs. Josephine Wolfe will be formally presented with the Bronze Medal of the Royal Canadian Humane Association. The medal was awarded to Mrs. Wolfe for her act of extreme bravery performed last summer, when she battled her way through five miles of swamp at the mouth of the Red River, in order to effect a rescue for three companions who were stranded on a sandbar.

Undoubtedly Mrs. Wolfe's gallantry was of the highest order, and the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association offer their sincere congratulations on the award granted.

Phil. J. Burnett, President of the Manitoba Section, offers his sincere thanks to all the affiliated clubs for the efforts they have put out to make this Gala a success.
